Add custom fields on server add form

How to add custom fields on the server add form while adding a server?

Synopsis: This article helps Ezeelogin gateway users on how to add custom server fields to the server add form.

Step 1: Login to Ezeelogin GUI, click on the settings -> server field -> add custom server field
Step 2: Provide the details for the custom server field

Name: A name for the custom server field

Alias: The column title name shown in server listing.

Description: Brief description on the custom server field

Type: Type of the custom server field added.

Encrypted: Shows if the information stored in the field would be encrypted or not.

Include In Listing: If enabled, the filed will be displayed in the server listing.

Sort order: The order number determines the position of the field in the server edit page. Lower values would be
Actions: To add or delete custom fields.
Step 3: The custom field can be viewed while adding a server by navigating to Servers -> Add Server -> Advanced section.
Step 4: The custom server field is displayed in the server listing when 'Include In Listing' under the name specified in the 'Alias' column.
Step 4: To view custom server fields in Ezeelogin shell, make sure to enable Show Custom Fields in Ezeelogin GUI by clicking on the Account -> Preferences ->Show custom fields in Ezeelogin Shell
Step 5: Use the access control to grant the custom server field access and view server details access to non admin users. Access control -> User-Action -> Servers (View Server Details) & Settings

How to enable custom server field for all users in ezeelogin?

To enable custom server fields for all users, run the following command:

```
root@localhost:~  php /usr/local/ezlogin/ez_queryrunner.php "replace into prefix_preferences (user_id, name, value) select id,
'show_custom_fields_ezsh' as name, 'Y' as value from prefix_users"
```