What happens if the Ezeelogin license server is not accessible from the gateway server?

Synopsis: This article will help Ezeelogin gateway users to understand how Ezeelogin will operate if it cannot access the license server.

---

Yes, Ezeelogin gateway users will be able to access the remote servers even in the unlikely event of the license server going down because the licenses are cached on the gateway server for 5 days. Additionally, Ezeelogin license servers are located in multiple data centers across the globe to ensure redundancy.
